Small group discussion questions:

1. Luke was very precise historian.
  - Do you think his being a physician, and his profession's unique training, helped him to be accurate in his history?
  - Do you see how God designed your life to make you the person you are today?
  - Can you talk to the group about that?

2. What do you think are the positive and negative aspects of being a perfectionist?
  - Are you a perfectionist and can you tell the group how it has both helped you and challenged you?

3. Luke was a gentile and his gospel is sensitive to those with no biblical background.
  - What is your people group?
  - To whom are you sent?
  - Can you relate the story of sharing with someone from your cultural background?

4. Luke is a gospel of prayer.
  - Do you have any thanksgivings for God's answers to your prayers to share or discuss with your small group?

Give examples for the group.....
